

The telephone privacy act in Indiana has been the best thing for my family. We have much more quality time together in the evenings without the stress and interruptions that come with telemarketers calling.....please leave it alone and dont change it.